

MORRIS BANKERS VISIT BIG DAM

Cattle Financiers Amazed at Magnitude of Project;
Praise El Paso

Two of the best known cattle financiers in the west, who came to the United States, are in El Paso. They are Charles M. Macfarlane, treasurer of Morris & Co., of Chicago, and R. L. Jarboe, Jr., president of the El Paso National Bank of Kansas City.

Mr. Macfarlane arranged for the purchase of the Morris company's El Paso banking field by taking over control of the American Trust and Savings bank. He was here for several days in conference with the local representatives of the Morris company, and, before returning to Chicago, announced the closing of the deal for the control of the American Trust company. James F. Primm was elected president in place of Joshua S. Ray, who retired from the head of the institution, but with James G. McNary and J. M. Wyatt remained on the board of directors.

Pleased With Situation.
As Morris & Co. is now installing a stockyard on the river front for the handling of its Mexican cattle, the entrance of the big packing company in the local banking field was considered one of the biggest financial deals of the year. "We find our bank and stockyards both in a satisfactory condition," said Mr. Macfarlane Saturday. "We consider this one of the most important cattle centers of the country and have proved it by our substantial investments in El Paso. I am now making inspection of the Texas field and am highly pleased with the general situation in El Paso."

Jarboe Amazed at Dam.
Upon the arrival of Morris Macfarlane and Jarboe here Tuesday they were taken to the Elephant Butte dam by James F. Primm in his Lander automobile. On the way they inspected a number of cattle ranches and studied cattle conditions at first hand. Both were amazed at the magnitude of the big dam. "That is a wonderful piece of work that even your people of El Paso do not appreciate fully," said Mr. Jarboe after his return from Elephant Butte. "We never realized such an undertaking was in progress down here and it has opened my eyes to the resources of El Paso and the part of the southwest."

Accompanied by Mr. Jarboe, Mr. Macfarlane will leave Sunday for Fort Worth and the east, en route to Chicago. Mr. Macfarlane came here from a vacation at Escalante Springs, Mo., where he has been with his family.

Black Man Kicks Slats Out Of "Black Maria" and Makes His Getaway

The top of the police auto patrol furnished an avenue of escape for a negro burglar while being transported to the police station from the Texas & Pacific yards about 4:30 Saturday morning.

The negro had been caught in the act of robbing a cashbox standing in the railroad yards.

Jack Brodhead, the patrol driver, locked his man in the machine and started for the station. The negro made several attempts to kick open the steel door at the rear of the machine. He then kicked the chain slats loose, tore a hole through the canvas covering and was in the act of climbing down the back end of the machine, when the driver discovered the escape.

The subject of her lecture Sunday night will be "To Sleep and to Die." Miss McQueen will deliver a lecture every night until and including Wednesday. WAR QUESTION PUZZLES
QUEEN OF BULGARIA

QUEEN ELEANOR OF BULGARIA.

London, Eng., April 24.—In an interview published here queen Eleanor of Bulgaria states clearly the dilemma of her country. "With us we know that we fight now or never," she said. "There is not likely to be war for a long time when this war is over. But the question we have to decide is whether the territory we can hope to gain will be worth the cost in men and money."

"Then, again, diplomatic questions are very complicated. It is against Greece, Rumania and Serbia that we hold claims for justice taking our territory after the war against Turkey which our armies had won for the alliance. How can we attack those three countries and stand on the side of the allies?"

"I have many friends in Petrograd and the whole country has a deep sense of its obligations to Russia for what she has done for us in the past. How can we make it plain to Russia that if we join Austria against Serbia we do not join her against Russia?"

"On the other hand, Bulgarians have a deep sympathy for the methods and development of Germany, and therefore it goes much against our spirit to join Germany's enemies."

RECORD TWICE BROKEN IN DAY

Philadelphia, Pa., April 24.—Champions in track and field events from the east and west measured speed and strength in the concluding day's sport of the University of Pennsylvania's 21st annual relay carnival on Franklin field today.

The javelin throwing competition was warmly contested. After Robert L. Nourse, of Boise, Idaho, wearing the colors of Princeton, had broken the collegiate record of 165 feet 8 1/4 inches, made last year by M. Dorland, University of Pennsylvania, by hurling the javelin 175 feet 8 1/4 inches, John L. Phillips, of Moscow, Idaho, a University of Idaho student, broke the new record with a throw of 177 feet 4 1/4 inches. Final javelin throw: First, Phillips, Idaho university, distance 177 feet 4 1/4 inches, breaking the collegiate record of 165 feet 8 1/4 inches held by Dorland, Pennsylvania; second, Nourse, Princeton; third, Berry, Pennsylvania.

The following men qualified for the final in the 120 yard hurdle: Simpson, Missouri; Ward, Chicago; Kelly, Southern California; Marriott, Pennsylvania State; Sheldon, Yale.

The best time in the heats was 1:25.5 seconds, made by Simpson.

...C...CIRCUS GLADES CROWD

Many Witness Clever Work
in "Dippydrome;" Another Performance Planned.

The "Dingaling Brothers' Dippydrome," the annual circus of the Y. M. C. A., which opened a two night engagement at the "Y" gymnasium on Friday night, was surprisingly good entertainment. With 15 numbers on the program, the young athletes gave some fine exhibitions of calisthenics, wand drills, tumbling and pyramids, bar and ring work.

Athletic director A. L. Holm spent many long hours training his classes to the degree of perfection they displayed and he had the satisfaction Friday night of seeing the program going through without a hitch.

There were clowns galore and the funny men were really funny. Homer Thomas carried off the honors in the comedy line, but he had able support from "Buster" Birge, John Drew, W. B. Schuta, Lee Nichols, C. Smith, G. Weeks and W. Hance.

One of the best numbers on the program was the exhibition of tumbling and pyramid work. "The Tumbler Troupe of Tiny Tads" consisted of Dick Cockendall, E. Krupp, George Cross, Ed Widdas, G. Walkup, Phil Cockendall, Kenneth Ross, John Williams, B. Krupp, Alfred Whitmer, Elmer Pearson, Leroy Schuler and John Dico. The Cockendall boys were the stars of the act and the $500 prize they played was one of the features of the whole circus.

Boys Give Highland Fling.

A class of high school boys gave a fine exhibition with the clubs and also gave a Highland fling. The participants were: Herman Ellingsberg, William McConnell, Errol Lapow, Robert W. Wolf, Paul Krupp, G. Broderick and Charlie Overstreet.

The wand act was given by the Whirling "Tizards," consisting of J. Clifford, R. Gaylord, Dutch Fuller, Coy Friend, Jim Wolff, Guy Livingston and Henry Collins.

Clowns Are Clever.

Director Holm and W. R. Schuta were cheered for the star act in the flying horses, but Thomas and Birge, two of the clowns, butted in and pulled off some clever work.

The clowns did some good jumping over the white horse. The white horse had numerous funny acts scattered throughout the show. "Sandwich," the strong man, got some good laughs, but a Henry Schuler, who played the stellar role, seemed to have a great hankering for music with his stunts.

On the parallel and horizontal bars some clever work was done by Schuta and Lee Nichols.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

THE UNIQUE.
A marvelous wild animal picture, featuring Marie Walcamp and Rex Le Ross, will be at the Unique today.

This is a special feature to two thrilling parts and a picture that you will long remember. The story of the production is an excellent one, good, out of its kind and there are no end of thrills throughout the entire two acts. An elephant makes a great hit in this picture by interfering in a fight and carrying away a man whom he throws over a high cliff. It is a great picture for both young and old and even should see it, if possible, as it is a production out of the ordinary. Come to the matinee, as it will be impossible to get a seat at the night shows. Regular prices will prevail.

Tonorrow, Mary Fuller will be featured in "The Honor of the Ormsby's," a three act Sunday special. This is a splendid production in every respect with the earmarks of quality all through it.—Advertisement.

ALHAMBRA FEATURES.
The Alhambra today and tomorrow will have the big Hudson Theater sensation, "The Big Game," written by David Vail, author of "Within the Law," and presented by Margaret Wycherly and John R. Keller. This is a feature in five acts and is full of thrills and dramatic situations, a play that has made a big hit wherever shown and is one that you will hold your attention throughout.

Monday the Alhambra will have D. W. Griffith's production, "The Avenging Conscience," taken from Edgar Allan Poe's "Tell Tale Heart," and "Poems of Affection." This production is rated as the biggest thing out today and is presented by that most accomplished actor, Henry Walthall.—Advertisement.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN AT BIJOU.
A return engagement of "The Champion," by special request, Charlie Chaplin's greatest comedy, will be shown at the Bijou today only. Without doubt this two-act comedy is one of the greatest ever produced, and if you have not seen "Charlie" in this comedy you had better make arrangements to see him today, for it is a scream from start to finish. Attend the matinee and be sure of a seat.

Tonorrow an excellent program has been arranged for Sunday.—Ad.
